

Oak Hall Episcopal School

Summer Reading List

for students entering: Sixth Grade

2020-2021

Students will be required to read two books this summer. The following are the guidelines to successfully complete summer reading requirements.

Oak Hall students are lifelong and year-round learners! Summer provides many opportunities for our students to enjoy unforgettable books while practicing reading and comprehension skills. Please note the required titles for your child's grade. These are the books your child's teacher will use during the first weeks of school. The required readings should be completed prior to the start of school. The library will be closed for circulation this summer due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. Each student will be provided their own copy of the required reading and a second novel to complete the required reading. If you would like to read a different book that what is assigned, you may purchase a book from the second novel list.

Required Reading:

The Bridge to Terabithia by Katherine Paterson and attached study guide

Second Novel List:

A Day No Pigs Would Die by Robert Newton Peck

The Compound by S.A. Bodeen

Julie of the Wolves by Jean Craighead George

Souder by William H. Armstrong

Catherine, Called Birdy by Karen Cushman

Once the student has completed reading book two, s/he will complete the Summer Reading Movie Poster using the attached rubric.
